

Compass

Find your way after sexual assault.

Problem

After experiencing sexual assault, most survivors feel a large amount of fear and confusion. This situation is only made worse when survivors do not know where to turn for help.

Solution

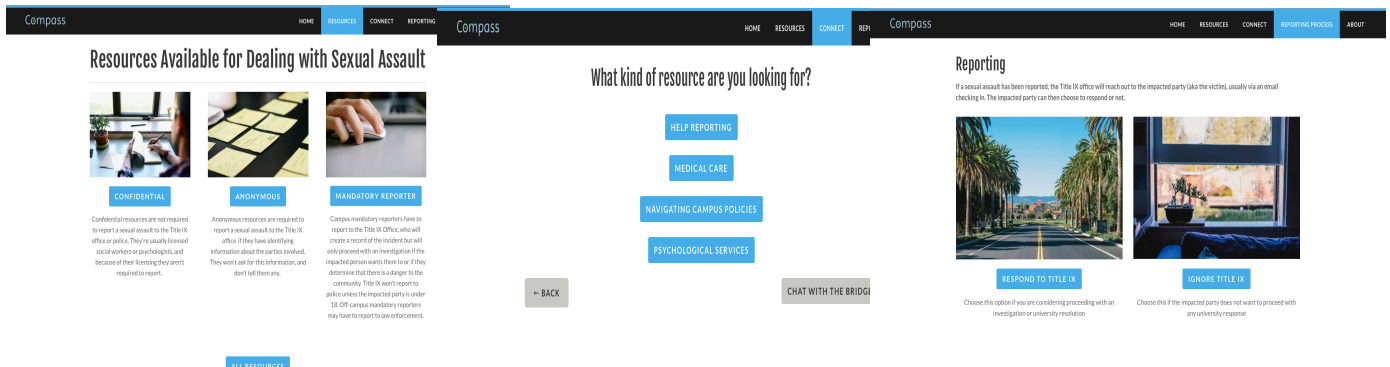

Compass helps victims of sexual assault navigate the recovery process, clarifying what resources are available to them and connecting them to the one that is best for them.

Steps

1. Clarify resources available to the individual

2. Connect the individual to a resource tailored to their needs

3. Explain all potential avenues of the reporting process

Design Iteration

Low fi → User testing → Medium fi → Heuristic evaluation → High fi

