We met
Adrienne, Linda and Edric (Child Education)

We were amazed to realize that children are stifled by formal education

It would be game changing if we could maintain the presence of initiative and creativity in education

Sherman

Dr Michael Frank

Courtney

Donghyuk

“Mastery should not be a variable”

“Sometime’s the school’s objective is to kill creativity”

“I’m not getting my money’s worth”

Revised POVs

We met Donghyuk, a student of 3 private tutors

We were amazed to realize that students don't know what to do with their initiative

It would be game changing if students could look for and receive education on their own terms

HMW give students a distress signal?

HMW make tutors more like on call butlers?

Revised POVs

We met Dr Michael Frank, a professor of psychology

We were amazed to realize that the stifling of creativity is a practical necessity

It would be game changing if we could maintain the presence of creativity and initiative only in the appropriate contexts

How we make learning feel like catching up with an old friend?
