Tools Being Used: XCode, Objective C, Nibs

The image displays the Xcode development environment with three main components:

- Source Code: The left pane shows the implementation of `SelectClassesViewController`. Key methods include `initWithNibName:bundle:` for initialization, `tableView:numberOfSectionsInTable:` and `tableView:cellForRowAtIndexPath:` for table view management, and `tableView:commitEditingStyle:forRowAtIndexPath:` for handling row deletions. Comments indicate the code is based on a tutorial by Griffin Stone.
- Storyboard: The middle pane shows a storyboard with a `UITableView` containing a list of class names: California, Brea, Burlingame, and Canoga Park. A `Section Header` is also present.
- Preview: The right pane shows a preview of the app interface, featuring a purple checkmark icon, the text "CLASS", and a status message: "This is a status that is two lines long. It...".

Meets every Tue at 3:00 pm (PDT)

Hey! So how do you know Jason?

He's a good friend of mine from college. Actually, I'll be seeing him at happy hour today.

All Hrp? I'm going to that too. Small world. Want to meet-up for a drink beforehand.

Sounds great!
